

4 Uniquely Elegant Thanksgiving Alternatives In Las Vegas

Simple preparations of turkey, yams, stuffing and gravy are the usual features of a Thanksgiving dinner, but this year, why not try something new? Be bold and eschew tradition by checking out these Las Vegas restaurants where you can venture outside the boxed mashed potatoes for some heightened culinary creativity.

While most of these restaurants will also offer their regular menus, make the most of this day of eating by seeking out something special.

Andrea's, Photo Courtesy of Wynn Resorts Holdings LLC

Andrea's in Encore at Wynn Las Vegas

At Forbes Travel Guide Four-Star Andrea's in Encore at Wynn Las Vegas, executive chef Joseph Elevado will channel a love of Eastern food with an Asian-inspired main dish on Thanksgiving. His turkey with Thai coconut green curry, kabocha squash, winter melon, dried cranberries and Thai basil guarantees to be anything but a stereotypical holiday meal.

<http://blog.forbestravelguide.com/4-uniquely-elegant-thanksgiving-alternatives-in-las-vegas>